Tennessee Baptist Convention Annual Associational Report

This past year has been a year of steady progress for our Tennessee Baptist network of churches. Because of the work of our churches and Associations, the sun never sets without Tennessee Baptists impacting lost people for Christ across our state and around this globe.

Three milestones:

- 1) First, the Missions Mobilization Center that has been a labor of love for three years was dedicated on June 1. Tennessee Baptists volunteering their skills and time poured themselves into making the MMC in Mt. Juliet a reality. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were saved because of the tens of thousands of man-hours that our great army of volunteers put into this facility. The MMC is going to be a tremendous asset to Disaster Relief ministry and Baptist Builders for many years to come. We deeply appreciate the late Don Davis and his precious wife, Ann, as well as their family sacrificially donating the land and giving of themselves to see the Missions Mobilization Center become a reality. And we can never adequately thank all the churches and individuals who gave financially to this project.
- 2) As I write this letter, the Chapel at Linden Valley Conference Center is very near completion. The floods of 2010 ravaged the Tabernacle, our former worship center at Camp Linden. But again, because people were willing to give of their time, energy, talents, and resources, a new chapel will soon come on line for the campers at this wonderful facility. Tim Bearden, Senior Manager, provided incredible oversight during the most difficult days of his life. Thank you, Tim.
- 3) The first three years of my tenure as Executive Director have been spent on sharpening our focus for the future. With the declines all across the Southern Baptist Convention, we must think again how we are doing Great Commission work in the 21st Century. We cannot continue to do “business as usual.” The report of the Vision 2021 Transition Team that will be presented to the messengers at Summit, The Gathering of Tennessee Baptists in Chattanooga will reflect a bold, new direction for our Convention. The focus will be on the mission of impacting lostness in Tennessee and around the world. We will have relationships strengthened around strategy, not tradition. And, by focusing on a few priorities, we will do our work with greater excellence.

With the great challenges facing all of us doing Kingdom work, we must lean on one another and our Lord like never before. I am extremely hopeful about the days ahead. I believe that Tennessee, “The Volunteer State,” can help lead the way in the Southern Baptist Convention in intentional evangelism and demonstrated discipleship. I believe our focus must be on revitalizing and strengthening our churches as we help one another strategically plant more churches in our state. And, we must give purposeful, great attention to developing Christ-exalting, Bible-centered pastoral leaders for the future. The Savior and lost souls are counting on our very best.

It is a joy to be with you on this journey.

Tennessee Baptist Convention

Union University

We are a grateful community at Union University for the numerous ways that God has blessed the work of our hands during the 2012-13 academic year, including an enrollment increase for the sixteenth straight year. Annual non-duplicating enrollment exceeded 5,000 for the third year in a row.

Union was pleased to invest the generous cooperative program gifts from the churches across the Tennessee Baptist Convention in the lives of hundreds of students who attended Union University during this past year. Many of the dollars went directly to provide scholarship assistance for students whose parents serve on the mission field, in local churches, and with denominational agencies.

Union has responded to invitations from the IMB and NAMB to create a special masters program in Christian Studies for missionaries and bi-vocational pastors. We are honored to serve the Baptist family in this way with an emphasis on missional, Kingdom-focused higher education.

Union continued to be recognized for high quality academics by U.S. News and World Report and numerous other publications. The recognitions were more significant than ever.

Nearly 1,150 students graduated from Union University this past year. These students will serve in Tennessee, in this region, across the country, and around the globe.

Union provided extensive leadership for the efforts to advance Christ-centered higher education through the publication of the volume on Faith and Learning (Baptist & Holman) and the multi-volume series on “Reclaiming the Christian Intellectual Tradition” (Crossway). In many ways Union stands as a leader in the Baptist and evangelical worlds in helping to shape distinctive Christ-centered higher education for the 21st Century.

Several hundred students were involved in dozens of global mission opportunities, local church and para-church ministries, and community service efforts.

We are thankful for our long-standing partnership with the Tennessee Baptist Convention. We pray for God’s ongoing blessings to rest on Union University as we seek to advance the cause of Christ-centered higher education in the Baptist tradition. We are grateful to the churches of the TBC and the friends of Union University across the state who provide prayer, encouragement, and financial support for our work, particularly for our students, staff, faculty and trustees.

David S. Dockery, President

Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, Inc. 2013 Association Report

The State of Tennessee is facing a significant challenge in providing an adequate number of Foster Parent Resource Homes for the constantly growing number of at risk children. The Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes has responded to this need by establishing a working relationship with DCS to recruit, train and engage Christian families to provide safe, strong homes for children in DCS custody.

An important part of the TBCH Foster Care Initiative is called the Caring Community Ministry (CCM). It is designed to be a lay-led ministry for support of foster families where they live and worship. It is important that families that open their homes have the necessary local support in order to be successful and help change the trajectory of the lives of at-risk children. Through the CCM that assistance can be provided to the Foster Care family.

TBCH is committed to providing the necessary support for the churches to ensure that the Caring Community Ministry concept will be a success for the children in care, the Foster Parents and church members who want to be a part of a mission endeavor without needing a passport or having to travel long distances. We hope that churches across Tennessee will see the CCM as an opportunity to reach out and minister in this critical way in their own communities.

During this year, your TBCH ministry has served approximately 200 children and their families through the residential care program. Additionally, 4 children have been led to a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, and 8 students provided for as they pursue their college or post-secondary education.

The past few years have presented challenges as we have attempted to meet the needs of children in crisis. A decision was made many years ago that we would not accept government funds to underwrite this work. As we step out in faith to partner with DCS to care for more children we continue to trust God, working through His people, to meet our needs. We ask that you prayerfully consider your response to both the Mother's Day Offering and the Cooperative Program.

THANK YOU Tennessee Baptists for your prayers, your volunteer service, and your gifts. Together, we are making a difference for the Kingdom!

Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes

In telling the story of the Good Samaritan, Jesus stressed that the Samaritan looked upon the needy man beside the road with compassion and then ministered and “took care of him”. The man was a stranger but a fellow human being. Your Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes ministry rarely has to deal with abused individuals, thankfully, but does welcome in the elderly, the frail, and the disabled who need someone to minister to them and take care of them. They may come to us as strangers, but it isn’t long until they are family and our residences they call “home”. They find compassion and care in the name of Christ and learn that Tennessee Baptists across the state are praying for them and contributing resources for their support. There is an entire network of Baptist believers who take Jesus’ words seriously about ministering to “the least of these” (Matt. 25:40).

Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes on any given day provides residences for 55 intellectually disabled persons in six group homes at four locations and another 300+ senior adults on three campuses. Your Cooperative Program and Father’s Day Offering gifts help make these residences possible. Additionally, for two weeks each summer a Special Friends Camp is held for intellectually disabled persons. This year there were about 270 campers served by some 70 staff. The camps are held at the TBC Carson Springs and Linden Valley Conference Centers and are underwritten to a large extent by the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions.

Quality of life and quality of care are stressed in every area of the ministry. The staff serves with the realization that every person is created in the image of God and one for whom Christ gave his life. Each resident and camper is treated with respect and every effort possible is made to insure that they enjoy a full life rather than endure a painful and lonely existence. Activities and opportunities for worship and fellowship are essential to the well-being of those we have the blessing of serving. The nursing home and assisted living center in Lenoir City along with the group homes receive first-rate evaluations by government regulatory bodies. More importantly, families and friends of residents continue to express great appreciation for the care given to their loved one. The independent living residences continue to be places of welcome and development of friendships. Living may be complicated due to disabilities and aging, but life can still be robust and meaningful. That is the difference Christ makes. It is the difference Tennessee Baptists make.

Please continue to pray for and undergird your vital ministry to senior adults and intellectually disabled adults through Tennessee Baptist Adult Homes.

Gratefully,
C. Kenny Cooper
President-Treasurer
